2 in connection with this case, the parties hereby agree as follows:

3 1. Any party or non-party may designate as “confidential” (by stamping the relevant
4 page or other otherwise set forth herein) any document or response to discovery which that party
5 or non-party considers in good faith to contain information involving trade secrets, confidential
6 business or financial information, or private information subject to protection under the Federal 7 Rules of Civil Procedure or Nevada law (“Confidential Information”). Where a document or 8 response consists of more than one page, the first page and each page on which confidential
9 information appears shall be so designated.
10

11 2. A party or non-party may designate information disclosed during a deposition or 12 in response to written discovery as “confidential” by so indicating in said response or on the 13 record at the deposition and requesting the preparation of a separate transcript of such material.
14 Additionally a party or non-party may designate in writing, within twenty (20) days after receipt
15 of said responses or of the deposition transcript for which the designation is proposed, that 16 specific pages of the transcript and/or specific responses be treated as “confidential” information.
17 Any other party may object to such proposal, in writing or on the record. Upon such objection,
18 the parties shall follow the procedures described in paragraph 8 below. After any designation
19 made according to the procedure set forth in this paragraph, the designated documents or 20 information shall be treated according to the designation until the matter is resolved according to 21 the procedures described in paragraph 8 below, and counsel for all parties shall be responsible 22 for making all previously unmarked copies of the designated material in their possession or 23 control with the specified designation.
26
27
28

1           3.     All information produced or exchanged in the course of this case (other than 2 information that is publicly available) shall be used by the party or parties to whom the
3 information is produced solely for the purpose of this case.

4           4.     Except with the prior written consent of other parties, or upon prior order of this
5 Court obtained upon notice to opposing counsel, Confidential Information shall not be disclosed
6 to any person other than:

8 counsel and co-counsel retained for this litigation;
9

10                  b.     employees of such counsel;

11                  c.     individual defendants, class representatives, any officer or employee of a
12 party, to the extent deemed necessary by Counsel for the prosecution or defense of this litigation;

13                  d.     consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or defense of 14 this litigation, provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the Certification annexed to 15 this Order as Exhibit "A" (which shall be retained by counsel to the party so disclosing the 16 Confidential Information and made available for inspection by opposing counsel during the 17 pendency or after the termination of the action only upon good cause shown and upon order of 18 the Court) before being shown or given any Confidential Information and provided that if the 19 party chooses a consultant or expert employed by the University Medical Center of Southern 20 Nevada or one of its competitors, the party shall notify the opposing party, or designating
21 nonparty, before disclosing any Confidential Information to that individual and shall give the 22 opposing party an opportunity to move for a protective order preventing or limiting such 23 disclosure;
24

25                  e.     any authors or recipients of the Confidential Information;
26
27
